Instructions to American Indian Culture and Research Journal Authors regarding the Permission Form

1) The Permission Form is for you to request permission for previously published items – such as figures, tables and text – to be published in the American Indian Culture and Research Journal. Fill out all the information requested on page 1, except for the information in the box at the bottom of page 1.

2) Next, send the Permission Form to the copyright holder(s) – this will most likely be the previous publisher and/or author – and ask them to sign and date the box at the bottom of the form and return the form to you.

3) Assemble the following items:

- the completed Permission Form, signed and dated by the copyright holder(s)
- a copy of the figure, table, or text for which you have received permission. Label the item as it will appear in your American Indian Culture and Research Journal article (e.g., Fig. 6) and include a caption
- the original photo or image, or an electronic version of either
- the AICRJ manuscript

Send this completed Permission Form and manuscript materials to:
