

Contents

Introduction: The Mimicry of Indian Gaming David Kamper	vii
---	-----

LEGISLATIVE BETS

From Hope to Realization of Dreams: Proposition 5 and California Indian Gaming Chad M. Gordon (Muscogee Creek)	3
Winning the Sovereignty Jackpot: The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act and the Struggle for Sovereignty Sioux Harvey	14
California High Court Strikes Down Indian Gaming in Hotel Employees and Restaurant Employees International Union v. Davis Joseph G. Nelson (Tlingit/Eyak)	35
Amici Curiae Brief of Indian Law Professors in the Case of Hotel Employees and Restaurant Employees International Union v. Wilson Carole E. Goldberg and Indian Law Professors	54
Cabazon and Its Implications for Indian Gaming Alexander Tallchief Skibine (Osage)	67
Indian Gaming: The State's View Thomas Gede	72

COMMUNITY PROSPECTS

Educating Local Non-Indian Communities about Indian Nation Governmental Gaming: Messages and Methods Katherine A. Spilde	83
Gaming and Recent American Indian Economic Development Joseph G. Jorgensen	96

- Traditional and Modern Perspectives on Indian
Gaming: The Struggle for Sovereignty
James V. Fenelon (Lakota/Dakota) 108

THE GAMBLER'S STYLE

- Contesting the Evil Gambler: Gambling, Choice,
and Survival in American Indian Texts
Paul Pasquaretta 131
- The Bingo Palace*: Indian Gaming as a Literary Device
Karen L. Wallace 152

TRIBAL PERSPECTIVES

- Ron Andrade (La Jolla)* 161
- Mary Ann Andreas (Morongo)* 166
- Priscilla Hunter (Pomo)* 169
- Ernie L. Stevens, Jr. (Oneida)* 172
- Erma J. Vizenor (Chippewa)* 176
- About the Contributors 179
- About the Editors 182
- Index 183